

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Wednesday, 13 January 2016

10:00–11:00 Registration

11:00–13:00 Welcome address/IMI intro (Oliver Bakewell, Hein de Haas)

Keynote session 1

Chair: Oliver Bakewell (University of Oxford)

Keynote speaker 1: Stephen Castles (University of Sydney)

Keynote speaker 2: Tim Hatton (University of Essex)

13:00–14:00 Lunch

14:00–15:45

Parallel session 1 Impact of migrants' return Chair: Yasser Moullan	Parallel session 2 Family relations Chair: Marie-Laurence Flahaux
Audrey Lenoël (Institute National for Demographic Studies) and Anda David (DIAL) International emigration and the labour market outcomes of women staying behind - the case of Morocco	Johanna Gereke (European University Institute) Why Men Migrate Relative Deprivation, Risk Attitudes and Migration in Thailand
Sonja Fransen (Maastricht University), Isabel Ruiz (University of Oxford) and Carlos Vargas-Silva (University of Oxford) Return migration in the post-conflict context	Nathalie Mondain (University of Ottawa) Migrant women, transnational relations and social change: how do Senegalese women combine migration with family life?
Gabriella Berloff and Sara Giunti (University of Trento) Remittances and expenditures of Peruvian households left behind: preliminary results	Julia Rushchenko (University of Hamburg, Utrecht University) Beyond Trafficking Discourse: Entrepreneurial Endeavors Among Female Marriage Migrants in Germany
Jytte Agergaard and Ditte Rasmussen Broegger (University of Copenhagen) Returning Home: Migrant Connections and Local Development in Rural Nepal	Zonca Elena Valentina (University of Trieste) Marriage Migration in Britain: a Gender Perspective

15:45–16:15 Break

16:15–18:00

Parallel session 3 Migration changing places Chair: Gunvor Jónsson	Parallel session 4 Diaspora engagement Chair: Marieke Van Houte
Naluwembe Binaisa (Max Planck) Lagos: Tracing mobilities and diversities within an African urban landscape	Yao Silvére Konan (Université Félix Houphouët-Boigny) Remittances and post electoral crisis in cote d'ivoire: a survey data analysis
John Arroyo (Massachusetts Institute of Technology) Belonging and the Built Environment: Transnational Spatial Influences on First-Generation Mexican Immigrants in Southern California	Manuel Assner (Free University of Berlin) How do migration status changes influence remittances sending? An exploratory mixed-method approach for the case of Colombian and Ecuadorian migrants in Spain
Katy N. Lam (Baptist University and the Max Weber Foundation) From expatriation to social promotion in the global South: intersection of Chinese SOE globalization and Chinese expats' mobility trajectories in Ghana	Marta Bivand Erdal (Peace Research Institute Oslo) Juxtaposing Pakistani diaspora policy with migrants' transnational citizenship practices
Lisa Åkesson (University of Gothenburg) Moving South: Understanding the development potential of the new Portuguese migration to Angola	Marion Mercier (ECARES, Université Libre de Bruxelles), Fabio Mariani (IRES, Université Catholique de Louvain) and Thierry Verdier (Paris School of Economics) Diasporas and conflict

18:00–19:00 Drinks and nibbles

Thursday, 14 January 2016

9:00–10:30 Keynote session 2
Chair: Hein de Haas
Keynote speaker 1: Filiz Garip (Harvard University)
Keynote speaker 2: Caglar Ozden (World Bank)

10:30–11:00 Break

11:00–12:45

Parallel session 5 Aspirations and migration decisions Chair: Gunvor Jónsson	Parallel session 6 Labour migration Chair: Leander Kandilige
Kerilyn Schewel (University of Amsterdam) Exploring the relationship between migration aspirations and the capacity-to-aspire: a consideration of 'preference to stay' among young adults in Senegal	Nabeela Ahmed (University of Sussex) Mobile people, immobile structures – A study of labour migrants in India and access to social protection
Nassim Majidi (Sciences Po Paris & Samuel Hall) Returns to Somalia: Transformation and Agency in Return and Reintegration Processes	Maurizio Ambrosini (University of Milan) From illegality to tolerance and beyond: irregular immigration as a selective and dynamic process
Sultan Orazbayev (University College and Nazarbayev University) and Miriam Manchin (University College London) Social networks and the intention to migrate	Rashesh Shrestha (University of Wisconsin) Labour market changes and human capital investment: evidence from migration boom in Nepal
Polina Manolova (University of Birmingham) '...because I hope for a better future'. Hopes, imaginaries and realities of Bulgarian migration to England.	Maryann Bylander (Lewis and Clark College) South–South Migration: Reflections from the Cambodia–Thailand System

12:45–13:45 Lunch

13:45–15:30

Parallel session 7 Politics and migration decisions Chair: Philippe Bourbeau	Parallel session 8 High-skilled migration Chair: Mathias Czaika
Melanie Kolbe (University of Georgia) Why Liberal States Restrict Wanted Immigration –Citizenship Regimes and the Politics of Highly-Skilled Immigration Policy	Yasser Moullan (University of Oxford) and Xavier Chojnicki (University of Lille) Is there a “Pig Cycle” in the labour supply of doctors? How training and immigration policies respond to physician shortages
Luisa Feline Freier (LSE and Universidad del Pacífico) Between Populist Liberalism and a new Commitment to Human Rights: Recent Immigration and Asylum Policy Cycles in Latin America	Lucie Cerna (University of Oxford) and Meng-Hsuan Chou (Nanyang Technological University) The Rise of Singapore in the Global Academic Talent Race: Strategies and Effects
Katie Kuschminder (Maastricht University) Irregular Migrants Decision Making Factors in Transit	Mathias Czaika and Yasser Moullan (University of Oxford) The Globalisation of International Student Mobility: Assessing the Role of Policies and Networks
Abdul Rehman (University of East Anglia) Determinants of Internal and International Migration in Rural Pakistan	Angele Flora Mendy (University of Lausanne) Dynamics of internal mobility of nurses in the Gambian health system: prerequisites for international migration

15:30–16:00 Break

16:00–18:00

Parallel session 9 Role of states and policies Chair: Robtel Pailey	Parallel session 10 Social remittances Chair: Leander Kandilige
Katharina Natter (University of Amsterdam) Maghreb emigration: Fifty Years of State Influence	Izabela Grabowska (University of Warsaw) and Godfried Engbersen (Erasmus University Rotterdam) Social remittances and the unintended social consequences of temporary migration from Poland
Marie-Laurence Flahaux (University of Oxford) and Cris Beauchemin (Institut national d'études démographiques) and Bruno Schoumaker (Université catholique de Louvain) Sub-Saharan Migration to Europe in Times of Restriction: An Empirical Test of Substitution Effects	Paolo Boccagni (University of Trento) The migration-home nexus: a new perspective on migrant transnational engagement over space and time
Anna Boucher (University of Sydney) and Justin Gest (George Mason University) States of Convergence and Change: A Data-Driven Typology and Analysis of Human Mobility Governance	Marieke van Houte (University of Oxford) Understanding processes of political change and migration: Agency, desires, capacities and structures
Ismael Issifouy (University of Orléans) and Francesco Magris (University 'François Rabelais' of Tours) Migration Outflows and Optimal Migration Policy: Rules versus Discretion	Jørgen Carling and Tove Heggli Sagmo (Peace Research Institute Oslo) Rumour and migration

18:00–19:00 Drinks

19:00–22:00 Dinner

Friday, 15 January 2016

9:00–10:30

Keynote session 3

Chair: Loren Landau (University of the Witwatersrand)

Keynote speaker 1: Robin Cohen (University of Oxford)

Keynote speaker 2: Uma Kothari (University of Manchester)

10:30–11:00 Break

11:00–12:45

Parallel session 11 Challenging transnationalism Chair: Ali R. Chaudhary	Parallel session 12 Policing the borders Chair: Federica Infantino
Ine Lietaert (Ghent University) The boundaries of transnationalism: the case of assisted voluntary return migrants	Bahar Baser (Coventry University) Criminalization and Decriminalization of the Kurdish Diaspora in Germany: From the "1990s" to the Recent Developments in Kobane
Richard Jones (University of Texas at San Antonio) The new international migration: settlement and the decline of transnationalism	Francisco Alonso (European University Institute) From the American Dream to the Mexican Nightmare: How U.S. Border Control Enforcement and Migratory Policies are Fueling Violence in Mexico
Giulia Sinatti (Free University of Amsterdam) and Des Gasper (Erasmus University Rotterdam) Migrant integration and transnational linkages -- using a human security framing to move beyond nationalist presumptions	Julien Brachet (University of Oxford) Policing the Sahara beyond War and Peace: the IOM and International Migration Control in Libya
Claudia Paraschivescu (University of Leeds) Between a rock and a hard place. An Exploration of Romanians' In-between Lives	Sohoon Lee (University of Sydney) and Yi-Chun Chien (University of Toronto) Making of "Skilled" Overseas Koreans: Transformation of Visa Policies on Co-ethnic Migrants in South Korea

12:45–13:45 Lunch

13:45–15:30

Parallel session 13 Transnational politics Chair: Marie Godin	Parallel session 14 Changing identifications Chair: TBC
Thomas Lacroix (Université de Poitiers) Hometown Transnationalism. Long distance villageness among Indian Punjabis and North African Berbers	Hong-Jae Park (The University of Auckland) A 'soft-migration' approach to overseas resettlement: 'Home and host' experiences, opportunities and challenges among Korean residents in New Zealand
Jaeun Kim (University of Michigan) The Documented Community of the Nation? Bureaucratic Practices and Transborder Membership Politics in Korea and Beyond	HaeRan Shin (Seoul National University) The dynamics of 'here' and 'there' among three transnational ethnic communities in New Malden, London
Ali R. Chaudhary (University of Oxford) Migrants' Local and Transnational Political Actions	Carolin Fischer (Université de Neuchâtel) Imagined communities? Relations of social identities and social organisation among Afghan diaspora groups in Britain and Germany
Marcos Estrada (University of Warwick) Proximal Transnationalism: Proximity as a Salient Feature in Transnational Processes

15:30–16:00 Break

16:00–17:00 Concluding panel discussion (Oliver Bakewell, Hein de Haas)

Nina Glick Schiller (University of Manchester)
Tayiwaa Manuh (Director, Social Development Policy Division, United Nations Economic Commission for Africa)
Helene Thiollet (SciencesPo)
Raúl Delgado Wise (Universidad Autónoma de Zacatecas)

