Travel to Oxford

From the airport

by BUS (Heathrow and Gatwick Airports):

The easiest and most affordable way to get to Oxford is to take a direct bus from the airport. Buses run by The Airline leave Heathrow approximately every 20 minutes, and Gatwick every hour. Travel time is approximately 80 minutes from Heathrow Airport and 120 minutes from Gatwick Airport.

From London

by BUS:

The Oxford Tube and the X90 bus both leave London's Victoria Station every 12–20 minutes, making stops at Marble Arch, Baker Street, Notting Hill Gate, and Shepherd's Bush before heading to Oxford's Gloucester Green bus station. Travel time is approximately 100 minutes.

by TRAIN:

Trains to Oxford leave London Paddington Station every half hour. Travel time is approximately 60 minutes. For national rail enquiries visit their website.

by CAR:

Take the M25 to the M40. Get off at the A40 towards Oxford. Follow signs to the ring road. At the third roundabout, take your first left onto Woodstock Road (towards the city centre). We strongly advise using the Park and Ride system as parking in Oxford is difficult and expensive.
